How to be an AMS influencer? Implementation strategies

Program

11:30-16:45, Thursday 7th November 2019, Education Centre RBWH, Herston

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Learning Objectives</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>11:30-12:00</td>
<td>Registration</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 12:00-12:10  | Welcome

Presenter: Minyon Avent

| 12:10-13:00  | Promoting behaviour change around antibiotic prescribing

Speaker: Professor Sara Cosgrove

- Understand the drivers of antibiotic prescribing
- Discuss methods to engage frontline providers in optimising antibiotic use to change practice
- Discuss communication strategies for working with individual prescribers to improve antibiotic use

| 13:00-13:30 | Pharmacy Perspective

Speaker: Amy Legg

- Understand the principles and processes of optimal antimicrobial use
- Describe the challenges and potential solutions involved in achieving optimal antimicrobial use

| 13:30-14:30 | Breakout session

- Discuss five key themes of implementation strategies for AMS

| 14:30-15:00 | Afternoon tea

| 15:00-16:00 | Feedback by facilitators

Dr Greg Merlo & Lisa Hall

- Understand the principles and processes of implementation frameworks
- Review key themes of implementation strategies for AMS

| 16:00-16:30 | Panel Discussion

Chair: Professor David Paterson

Panel Members:
Professor Sara Cosgrove, Dr David Walker, Ms Amy Legg, Ms Fiona Gotterson, Professor James McCarthy, Mr Matthew Ames, Mr Jason Gale

| 16:30-16:45 | Next Steps

Presenter: Trent Yarwood

Workshop coordinators: Dr Trent Yarwood, Infectious Disease Specialist & Dr Minyon Avent, Advanced Pharmacist